

The United States Diplomacy Center

presents

Discover Diplomacy:

America's Diplomats in a Changing World

The John C. Whitehead Student Conference

Wednesday, October 26th, 2016 | U.S. Department of State, Washington, DC

Scholarship Application

Scholarships to attend the John C. Whitehead Student Conference will include economy class equivalent transportation costs to Washington, D.C., lodging at the State Plaza Hotel October 25th & 26th, and full entry into the conference including panel presentations, simulations participation, and networking opportunities.

First Name: _____ Last Name: _____

Email: _____

Phone: _____

University: _____

Circle: Male / Female

Circle: Sophomore / Junior / Senior / Graduate__

Major: _____

Minor: _____

Diplomat in Residence: _____

With this application please include:

- A short (250 word) bio that includes your career goals and future plans
- A photo or headshot of yourself for use on conference materials and social media
- An essay not to exceed 500 words on one of the following:
 - How would attending this conference benefit your understanding of diplomacy?
 - How do you see yourself contributing to diplomacy now and in the future?
- A one paragraph reference statement from a faculty advisor or Diplomat in Residence

Complete applications are due to your Diplomat in Residence no later than September 9, 2016.

By submitting this application I agree to allow the U.S. Diplomacy Center to use my image on all promotional and educational materials.

The John C. Whitehead Student Conference,
Changing World, is organized by the U.S. Diplomacy Center, U.S. generously funded by the Carnegie Corporation

Discover Diplomacy: America's Diplomats in a Department of State, and is of New York.