

Envision your future for Europe.
Apply by October 30th!

Following the tremendous success of ESC2015, ESC2016 will bring together 100 undergraduate and graduate students from different American universities with the objective of tackling some of the major issues that face the European Union. If you are someone with bold ideas for the future of the European idea, then ESC2016 will be your chance to shine!

Envision Your Future for Europe

- Engage with the challenges that confront the EU
- Develop policy recommendations along with motivated undergraduate and graduate students with a passion for the EU
- Debate with seasoned policy-makers and distinguished academics from the USA and Europe
- Participate in a business competition for social entrepreneurship
- Become part of an international network that links thinkers and leaders

The application is open to all undergraduate and graduate students studying at an American university.

Transportation and accommodation costs will be covered by European Horizons.

Should you have any questions, please email us at info@escat Yale.com

It is a fantastic idea that you've got a European Student Conference going on at Yale. —TONY BLAIR

I was glad I was able to participate at the ESC at Yale. —PASCAL LAMY

Featured Professors

SEYLA BENHABIB, DAVID CAMERON, JOLYON HOWORTH, VIVIEN SCHMIDT, ADAM TOOZE

Featured Policy-Makers

PIERRE MOSCOVICI, European Commissioner for Economic and Financial Affairs

JAMIE SHEA, Deputy Assistant Secretary General for Emerging Security Challenges at NATO

PIERRE VIMONT, Former Executive Secretary-General of the European External Action Service and former French Ambassador to the USA

THEMES FOR 2016

Economy and Innovation:

Pursuing growth and innovation through small and medium enterprises

European Identity:

Considering religion and secularism

Democracy and Institutions:

Establishing a Eurozone Treasury

Transatlantic Relations:

Rethinking the European defence strategy

Immigration and Integration:

Formulating a European integrated immigration and asylum policy

Entrepreneurship Workshop:

Integrating admitted immigrants into European economies and societies through innovative business ventures

When: February 5–6, 2016

Where: Yale School of Management

APPLY BY OCTOBER 30, 11:59 PM EST
AT WWW.EUROPEANHORIZONS.ORG

